

College and School Football * Boxing * Baseball * Athletics * Cross-Country Run * Automobiling

YALE FOOTBALL MEN
BACK AT HARD WORK

Players Show Plenty of Dash
After a Complete Rest of Four Days.

TIGERS STILL RUSTICATING

Will Return to Princeton Today and Begin Getting Ready for Battle with Yale.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
New Haven, Nov. 4.—The Yale 'varsity' football team settled down to work again this afternoon, after a four-day suspension of practice out of respect to the memory of Theodore W. York.

With only three games to be played, against Brown, Princeton and Harvard, nothing but the hardest kind of work is planned. The practice to-day opened with a long rudimentary and signal drill, and then the 'varsity' faced the freshmen for a thirty-minute scrimmage. The regulars scored two touchdowns and one goal, the freshmen failing to tally. Nearly all of the regulars returned in good condition. Harrison's ankle kept him away from the field, and probably will until after the Brown game. Regarding this player, Howe is of the belief that he will be a regular guard upon his return. He said Harrison had been playing well and was coming fast.

Randall returned to-day, although his ankle is not yet in the best of condition. Howe does not believe he will be used in any of the remaining games. While prominent up to the time of his injury, Howe said he had not learned much football when he was forced to retire.

To fill up the gap of guard, Pendleton, who has been playing such a sterling game at tackle, has been moved over a notch. He is a fast, rangy fellow, and was pressing Talbot and Warren closely for the tackle positions. Conney is holding down the other place at guard well. Arnold and Madden have gone to the second team and will be used as subs.

Another loss came in the quarterback department to-day. "Butch" Loftus has a compound fracture of a finger on his right hand, and Captain Spalding says he will be of no further use to the team this year, as it will prevent him from handling the ball. Loftus had been doing well, and was close on the heels of Wheeler and Cornell.

Gallauer, at end, did not play in the scrimmage, as the coaches feel that he is still showing the effects of too much work. Sheldon took his place to-day.

In the scrimmage nearly all of the 'varsity' games were less than ten yards. Captain Spalding made several plunges of from seven to nine yards, and seemed to be much improved by his rest. Spalding scored the first touchdown on a line plunge through the left side of the line. Pumphly kicked the goal. Flynn made the second score on a five-yard plunge at the right side of the line. The punt out falled and no goal was attempted. Flynn also was good for numerous plunges of from seven to eight yards until late, because of restlessness, so was not used. The freshmen were twice able to carry the ball well into 'varsity' territory, as far as the 30 and 35 yard lines. Both advances were due to forward passes.

Guernsey made one end run of twenty-five yards. This player is much coveted by the 'varsity' coaches. The freshmen intercepted two forward passes which the regulars tried. This play still looks like a useless one so far as Yale is concerned.

The following men were used on the 'varsity' to-day: Avery, Gallauer, Sheldon, Carter and Gile, ends; Talbot, W. Warren and H. Warren, tackles; Pendleton, Conney, Arnold and Madden, guards; Ketcham and Reed, centers; Cornell, Wheeler and Dyer, quarterbacks; Spalding, Flynn, Dietz and Walter, substitutes. Tom Shevlin, Water Camp and Hobbs, the Amherst coach, aided the regular staff in directing the play.

Tigers at Atlantic City.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 4.—Osborne Field was deserted to-day, as most of the football regulars were at Atlantic City, where Keene Fitzpatrick is giving all his veterans a complete rest. Saturday's grueling contest with Harvard was a severe strain, but with the exception of Dunlap the men are reported to be in the best physical condition.

Dunlap did not go with his teammates, but remained in Boston over Sunday. Earle Waller was back in Princeton early this morning to attend recitations. The big back showed no signs of Saturday's strenuous work.

The players will arrive here to-morrow morning and secret practice will be resumed in the afternoon. Cunningham plans to utilize the two remaining weeks of practice before the Yale game in stiffening up the line. The struggle with Harvard showed up many weaknesses that may yet be remedied, but just what methods will be employed and what shake-ups will be made is still problematical. Captain Pendleton may go to the end permanently to make room for "Bobby" Baker in the backfield.

Applications for the Yale game closed yesterday with the demand for seats in the east and west stands far in excess of the supply. The management has made large additions to the end stands to accommodate the overflow. Judging from the present number of applications fully 30,000 persons will witness the struggle on November 16.

FORDHAM IN FINE FORM

'Varsity Has Hard Drill Before
Clash with Stevens.

Tom Thorpe, coach of the Fordham University football eleven, has whipped his charges into the best form of the season to face the Stevens Institute team at Fordham Field, 190th street and Third avenue, this afternoon. The Maroon squad ran through a two-hour drill yesterday, which consisted of developing interference, running back punts and perfecting the forward pass.

The back field has again undergone a shift, while Meehan, the guard, will not play, his place to be filled by O'Toole. The Fordham eleven will line up as follows: Left end, Viviano; left tackle, Sanzini; left guard, Simonetti; center, Stover; right guard, O'Toole; right tackle, Vincent Kane; right end, Joe Hinchliffe, quarterback, Schaffmeister; left halfback, Henry Kane; right halfback, McNally; fullback, Leo Hinchliffe.

REST FOR HARVARD SQUAD
Men in Fine Form to Prepare for Game with Vanderbilt.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 4.—There was no football inside or outside of the Harvard Stadium for the 'varsity' or freshman football teams this afternoon, owing to the hard games on Saturday with the Princeton eleven. Percy Haughton decided that it would be advisable to give the players a rest, but real work will start to-morrow in preparation for the Vanderbilt game on Saturday.

It will be the first time that Harvard has met the Southern collegians and the head coach is hopeful that the former will show up to good advantage. Trumbull, the big, powerful guard, who was in the Stillman Infirmary yesterday owing to a slight injury, is all right again, and he will join the regulars at practice to-morrow afternoon.

Brickley, the spectacular field goal kicker, says that he is feeling fine and will be on hand for whatever work is required.

JUST TALK FOR CORNELL

First Step Taken to Strengthen
Eleven for Dartmouth.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Dr. Al Sharpe, head coach of the Cornell football eleven, may be discouraged, but he does not show it. He gave one of his usual Monday blackboard talks to the candidates this afternoon and did not require any work on the gridiron.

The purpose of the lecture was to point out the weak spots developed on Saturday, when Williams took the eleven into camp, and to suggest ways to improve the defense.

The players will report at the field to-morrow for a practical demonstration, and plenty of hard work is promised in getting ready for the Dartmouth game on Saturday.

SECRET DRILL FOR BROWN

'Varsity' Put Through Signal
Drill and Fundamentals.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Providence, R. I., Nov. 4.—The Brown football team was sent through a fast signal drill to-day by the coaches and behind closed gates. Several special formations were tried out. Fundamental football received much attention, the players being put through their paces in an all-round attempt to ground them in the rudiments of the game.

In the signal drill stress was laid on the forward pass. Only one of the regulars was out of commission, Mitchell, who should not have been played against Vermont on Saturday. Hazlett took his place in the line to-day and the latter will rest as long as the coaches dare allow him.

Langdon was replaced at left end by "Buzz" Andrews, a strong lineman, who entered Brown from one of the Providence preparatory schools this year. Andrews gave a good account of himself in the workout.

The lineup for the signal drill, which took the place of a scrimmage, was: Andrews, left end; Wade, left tackle; Kulp, left guard; Hazlett, center; Kratz, right tackle; Gottstein, right guard; Ashbaugh, right end; Crowther, quarterback; Tenney, left halfback; Bean, right halfback; Henry, fullback.

MORE SHIFTS IN NAVY LINE

Coaches Not Yet Satisfied With Work of the 'Varsity.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Annapolis, Md., Nov. 4.—Football practice at the Naval Academy did not start until twilight this evening, owing to a long infantry drill, which occupied practically the whole of the afternoon. The members of the squad were given just enough work to limber them up, but there was no line-up or signal drill.

There is some encouragement over the showing of the team on Friday against Western Reserve, and during the practice of the week, but it is admitted that the team must improve greatly before meeting the Army eleven on November 30.

The backfield has not been decided, and there are at least three places on the line which may be regarded as unsettled. "Big" Brown has been doing thoroughly unsatisfactory work at guard for some time, and may be replaced by Woodward, unless he takes a distinct brace. Overseach, who has been at end, has also failed to measure up to expectations, and just now Graf is taking care of that position.

Walker has been found to be rather light to cover center, and just now Perry is filling his place. Howe at guard, and Clutcher at right end appear to be reasonably certain of holding their places.

The weight of the players taken within the last two or three days shows that the team is not quite as heavy as thought. The average of the team, as it would probably be selected at present to oppose the Army, is 179 5-11 pounds. The line averages 183 1-2 pounds, and the backfield 173 1-2 pounds. Possible changes would alter these figures. There are two members of the squad weighing over 200 pounds, Brown's weight being 203 pounds and Howe's 202 pounds.

ARMY MAKES UP FOR REST

'Varsity' and Scrub Go Through a Grueling Scrimmage.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
West Point, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The wet weather last Friday and the cancelling of the Holy Cross game scheduled for last Saturday had given the Army football team a three days' rest. When the men came out early to-day the coaches were determined that the resumption of work would be marked by the hardest scrimmage of the year.

After the preliminary warming up, which consisted of punting, tackling the dummy and a stiff signal drill, Captain Graves selected two eleven and sent them into the scrimmage work, which lasted an hour. All up the regulars were in the line-up. Devore's leg is coming along in fine condition, and the big tackle was in the scrimmage to-day for thirty minutes.

The regulars scored one touchdown from a very prettily executed forward pass, Pritchard to Gillespie, and Keyes kicked two field goals, while the scrub failed to score. Dorer was worked hard at center to-day on the first team, his passing was accurate and the coaches were pleased with the showing he made. The playing of Hobbs, Keyes and Benedict, the regular backfield man, was excellent. Benedict's all around work, both on the offensive and defensive, was especially gratifying.

Darkness Ends Work of New York Eleven for Trinity Game

Olcott Does Not Spare His Men on Eve of Hard Struggle.

Hermann P. Olcott, coach of the New York University football team, put the squad through a final hard practice yesterday, on Ohio Field, in preparation for the game this afternoon with Trinity College, at University Heights. It is expected that the team will be hard hit by the scholarship reports that are to be turned in this morning, and several new men may be seen in the line-up.

The practice lasted until long after dark, and the men were pretty well tired out when it was over. Only half an hour was devoted to scrimmage, but the squad was kept at work on a long signal drill and running down punts.

In the scrimmage the backfield showed marked improvement in getting under way. In the last game with Williams the chief defect lay in the fact that the backs were tackled before fairly started.

SCHOOL ELEVEN READY
NEW PLAN AT COLUMBIA

Feast of Football on Number of Gridirons This Afternoon.

A rare feast of scholastic football will be enjoyed to-day when several of the strongest teams meet on the gridiron. The High School of Commerce, Morris, Erasmus, Manual Training, Boys' High and Poly Prep will play, and a definite line may be drawn on the probable winner of the championship of greater New York.

Commerce, regarded by many as the most probable winner of the title, will play the somewhat demoralized Morris team at American League Park, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. At Washington Park, Brooklyn, Manual Training will meet its time honored rival, Erasmus Hall, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and on the same field, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, Boys' High will face "Poly Prep." Bushwick will meet the Adelphi eleven at Adelphi Field, Brooklyn, this afternoon.

The Commerce students are looking forward to the game with Morris. They expect victory, and by a decisive score, but the Maroon and White has always had a knack of making Commerce fight to the last ditch, and a surprise may be in store. Paul Brown, the Commerce quarterback, is suffering from an injured thumb and will be compelled to watch the game from the side lines. Freer, one of the greatest line-smashing backs the school has ever had, also is out of the game with an injured hip. Commerce is fortunate, however, in having backs like Kannebeck and Russell Clark to jump into the breach, and Morris will have to show a strong line and alert ends to hold down the score.

Last year Commerce defeated Morris at 17 to 6. One of the best games of the season may be expected when the Manual Training and Erasmus Hall eleven trot out on the field for their annual game. Last year Manual won by the scanty and all too indecisive margin of 1 point; the difference between a goal from the field and a safety touchdown. Both eleven are in perfect condition and in their final practice displayed plenty of snap and dash.

"Poly Prep" and Boys' High appear about evenly matched, and a hard game should result. When the Manual Training and Erasmus Hall eleven have come into its own in late style, and Billy Seagrist, the old "Poly" star, is confident of victory. Adelphi should have no trouble in swamping the weak team of Bushwick High School when they meet at Adelphi Field.

The Commerce Cubs will meet the Yorkers second team at Van Cortlandt Park this morning, at 10 o'clock, while Horace Mann and Ceter School will clash on the former's field near Van Cortlandt Park.

QUAKERS WORK TO DUSK

Craig Gives Signals and May Run Team Against Michigan.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—In the hope of dispelling some of the gloom that pervaded Franklin Field this afternoon, the Pennsylvania football coaches, augmented by "Big" Bill Hollenback, drove the men hard and long. It being dark before the practice was called off. The 'varsity' team was only a shadow of its former self, as Mercer was in bad condition. Minda had been allowed to go to his Williamsport home to recover from election, while some of the other regulars were allowed a rest after the hard game with State College.

Craig gave the signals, and the youngsters showed skill in directing the 'varsity' in the scrimmage with the scrub. His work so impressed the coaches that it seems likely he will pilot the team in Saturday's game with Michigan.

Wharton and Koons were the ends to-day, Wilson and Dillon the tackles, Keeler and Greene the guards, McCall center, while Craig, Marshall, Journey and Crawford made up the backfield. The scrimmage was rather ragged and the 'varsity' scored three times, while the scrub managed to land two touchdowns. Just at dusk the regulars carried the ball for ninety-nine yards and a score that broke the tie.

Bloom, the big tackle of last year's scrub, who has been suffering from blood poisoning, reported and took part in the signal drill, although he was not allowed to play in the scrimmage.

WESLEYAN'S FINE SHOWING

High Pleased with Good Condition of the 'Varsity.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Middletown, Conn., Nov. 4.—Jake Hill is rejoicing that the Wesleyan football eleven is approaching the culminating games of the season, with Williams at Williamstown next Saturday and with Trinity on the home gridiron the following week, with all the 'varsity' men in good condition.

In fact, the Cardinal and Black has had a remarkable season in this respect, for hardly a man has been on the hospital list for more than a day or two. Gillies wrenched his knee early in the season, but seems quite recovered from that.

In preparation for the two big games remaining some of the alumni are expected to spend a few days on the campus and help High in the work. Lew Gordon, who captained a Wesleyan eleven when she was in the big four with Yale, Harvard and Pennsylvania; Billy Calder, captain of the successful 1905 eleven; Ed Steele, "Pat" North, Kenneth Goode, Ding Dearborn and others are expected to show up, some of them to make the acquaintance of High for the first time.

BANTAM CHAMPION HERE

Charles Ledoux Seeking New Fields to Conquer.

After Bout with Coulon
Onetime Under Chef Looks Like a Boxer Who Must Be Respected.

Charles Ledoux, of France, the bantam-weight champion of the world by right of conquest, arrived in this country yesterday seeking bouts with the best men of his class. He stands ready to meet all comers at the bantamweight limit of 116 pounds.

He made the journey expressly to meet Johnny Coulon, who has called himself the bantamweight champion of the world, and to settle the question once and for all. If Coulon is chary of entering the ring, "Kid" Williams, or any good bantamweight, will be met in turn, first come first served.

Those who have seen the champion in action declare that he is a second Terry McGovern, when the Brooklyn terror was at his best. An aggressive, savage fighter, with a punch in both hands, the little Norman forces the fight all the time, and in all his battles has yet to break ground before the attack of any opponent.

In France Ledoux is known as "Le Petit Sam Langford," and he believes his nickname in no particular. There are few little men in the athletic world who have the wonderful physique of the French boy. Less than five feet tall in his fighting shoes, he is a little giant. He has broad, sloping shoulders, covered with long, sinuous muscles, that writhe and play under the skin at every move; he has a deep chest, heavy legs, sturdy loins and muscular, powerful arms.

Ledoux has been boxing for about four years, but during the first twelve months he took little real interest in the sport and stuck close to his work. An under chef in one of the Parisian hotels, he worked from early morning until 8 or 9 o'clock at night, and then, leaving the kitchen, would hurry into the ring. From the first his efforts met with success, and, as his manager dramatically expressed it, "Every fight it was in the kitchen." He has met everybody, but he has won them all. His success encouraged the little fellow, and soon he forsook the pans and vats of the kitchen to become champion of all France first, and then champion of the world.

His title is clear. Jim Bowker, who won the championship from Frankie Neil when the little Californian was champion, was defeated by "Digger" Stanley, and the latter in turn went down before the savage, relentless charges and terrific punches of Ledoux in the seventh round of what was to have been a twenty-round battle at Dieppe, France, a few months ago.

Ledoux is a pleasing, modest little fellow out of the arena, and said he preferred to talk anything but boxing. He is an ardent Roosevelt man, and hopes that the Bull Moose will impale and toss all opposition at the polls to-day. "He sees one great man, and we hope he wins," said the little fellow.

Jim Buckley declares that in "Gunboat" Smith he has the greatest white heavyweight before the American public, but that he is the victim of a plot. "Naw'n o' them fellers will fight th' 'Gunboat,' and for th' best reason in the world," declares James in clear Limerick. "They're awl afraid of him, from Jeanette down the line. Now, I brought Smith awl th' way from th' Coast to this city to meet Palmer, but th' managers match a British champion with him and the champion gets knocked out. Thin what do they do? They give the baten man a feed and another fight. Wurra, but it's a funny place, and a rale fighter waitin' for a chanst!"

"Knockout" Brown, the East Side lightweight, is ill with a heavy cold, and his bout with Sammy Trott in Cleveland on Thursday night has been postponed. Danny Morgan, however, is letting no grass grow under his feet, and is signing Brown up for several more contests.

LEAGUE TAKES NEW NAME

Connecticut Changed to Eastern Baseball Association.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—At the adjourned annual meeting of the Connecticut Baseball League, to-day, the name was changed to the Eastern Association, and Pittsfield, Mass., and New London, Conn., were admitted to membership.

The league is now composed of eight clubs, the others being New Haven, Hartford, Bridgeport, Waterbury, Springfield and Holyoke.

James H. O'Rourke, of Bridgeport, was re-elected president, secretary and treasurer.

EASY GAME FOR PEDDIE SCRUB.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Hightstown, N. J., Nov. 4.—The Peddie scrub eleven defeated Princeton High here to-day by a score of 32 to 0. Parker, Van Cleave and Gulick, of the Princeton High team, and Wiley and Bascuas, of Peddie, were the stars of the game.

AUTO RACING

Brighton Beach
To-day

Music by 22nd Regt. Band
Admission 50c—$1 Autos Free

THE TURF.

MEADOWBROOK STEEP-
CHASE PARK TERMINAL TO-DAY, ELECTION DAY,
Steeplechase, Flat Races & Pony Races.
FIRST RACE 2 P. M.

AUTOMOBILES FOR RENT.

PACKARDS.—New cars, limousine and touring, by the hour or trip; cheap rates for monthly service. Special rates for electric calls. UNIVERSAL TAXIMETER CAB CO., 158 East 53d Street, Phone Plaza 2100.

BRIGHTON MATINEE MEET TO-DAY

Ends Local Racing.

LARGE FIELDS ENTERED

Detroit Man Says American
Cars Will Find Good Market in Far East.

Automobile racing in the vicinity of New York, or in the entire country, for that matter, will end for the year with the decision of the programme at Brighton Beach this afternoon. The matinee programme arranged by the Motor Dealers' Exhibit Company is a good one, and the list of entries assures high-class racing from start to finish.

Something of a novelty will be seen in the 100-mile race which stands as the feature of the card. Rarely is a race of such length offered on a mile circuit, and this one, carrying a big cash prize, has drawn the nominations of several of the most prominent drivers in the country. Spencer Wishart, Ralph Mulford, Nat Whalen and other stars will be seen in nearly all the races, and the last matinee meet at the beach indicated that they are pretty well matched with the cars they will handle.

The announcement made before the last meet to the effect that no charge would be made for automobiles entering the grounds had the result of bringing hundreds of cars. The same rule will prevail this afternoon, so that if fine weather prevails a record crowd is looked for. The Twenty-second Regiment band has been engaged, and in all other ways the meet will be up to the minute.

DRAW FOR AD WOLGAST

Joe Mandot, the Better Boxer,
Just Lacks the Punch.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
New Orleans, Nov. 4.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, had a narrow escape from decisive defeat at the hands of Joe Mandot, the local pugilist, in one of the most sensational ten-round boxing contests ever seen in this city. Both men were badly used up at the end.

While expert opinion was largely in favor of declaring the bout a draw, the greater number of the spectators were loud in their declaration that Mandot had won, and won easily. On the whole, however, there was little to choose, although Wolgast was knocked flat from a right hand punch on the jaw in the ninth round. He leaped up and rushed in, forcing the fight.

His prolonged lay-off has apparently done him little good, and while he was strong at the final bell he was painfully wild, and the local boy had no trouble in outboxing and outgeneralling him at every stage of the game. The champion hit harder, and one of his solid smashes did more harm than two of the punches of Mandot.

Mandot had the better of five of the ten rounds, Wolgast one, and the rest were even, but the newspaper men reasoned that Wolgast had forced the battle in the greater number of rounds, and had shown enough all around work to offset the advantage which Mandot's superior science had given him. It was the ability of Wolgast to fight in the clinches, a department of the game in which he is unquestionably one of the best in the world, which undoubtedly influenced the decision. While in close he had the best of the exchanges, although Mandot made him look like an amateur when it came to clever boxing.

Wolgast was the first to enter the ring. He looked fit as he walked about greeting friends in the audience and bowing to the plaudits of the crowd. He was seconded by Tom Jones, his manager; Eddie Munzer, Ed Bertucci and "Happy" Littlejohn. The noise which greeted Wolgast upon his arrival paid into insignificance when Mandot forced his way down the aisle, attended by Tommy Walsh, Bobby Robideu and "Hobo" Dougherty. The last named was one time one of the present champion's henchmen. The men met in midring and shook hands in a perfunctory manner, and exchanged banter, while the crowd roared its approval.

At the top of the going Mandot walked out and promptly slammed a left to the face that made the Cadillac man hold on and clinch until parted by the referee. Wolgast met Mandot's next advance with a solid left to the body, and sunk a right to the same place after the break. The boys met in mid-ring in wild rally and the crowd howled like mad. Honors were about even.

Wolgast came by the cudsels in the third round in no uncertain manner. Mandot flinched him around the ring, and, picking off his heavy swings, stabbed a snappy left home to the head. Mandot covered well and had a clear lead at the end of the round.

The fourth round was even, Wolgast's lightning attack offsetting the clear advantage of his opponent, and in the fifth Ad flashed in the lead. He landed hard and

CHARLES LEDOUX.
Bantam champion of the world, who arrived in this country yesterday.

DRAW FOR AD WOLGAST

Joe Mandot, the Better Boxer,
Just Lacks the Punch.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
New Orleans, Nov. 4.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, had a narrow escape from decisive defeat at the hands of Joe Mandot, the local pugilist, in one of the most sensational ten-round boxing contests ever seen in this city. Both men were badly used up at the end.

While expert opinion was largely in favor of declaring the bout a draw, the greater number of the spectators were loud in their declaration that Mandot had won, and won easily. On the whole, however, there was little to choose, although Wolgast was knocked flat from a right hand punch on the jaw in the ninth round. He leaped up and rushed in, forcing the fight.

His prolonged lay-off has apparently done him little good, and while he was strong at the final bell he was painfully wild, and the local boy had no trouble in outboxing and outgeneralling him at every stage of the game. The champion hit harder, and one of his solid smashes did more harm than two of the punches of Mandot.

Mandot had the better of five of the ten rounds, Wolgast one, and the rest were even, but the newspaper men reasoned that Wolgast had forced the battle in the greater number of rounds, and had shown enough all around work to offset the advantage which Mandot's superior science had given him. It was the ability of Wolgast to fight in the clinches, a department of the game in which he is unquestionably one of the best in the world, which undoubtedly influenced the decision. While in close he had the best of the exchanges, although Mandot made him look like an amateur when it came to clever boxing.

Wolgast was the first to enter the ring. He looked fit as he walked about greeting friends in the audience and bowing to the plaudits of the crowd. He was seconded by Tom Jones, his manager; Eddie Munzer, Ed Bertucci and "Happy" Littlejohn. The noise which greeted Wolgast upon his arrival paid into insignificance when Mandot forced his way down the aisle, attended by Tommy Walsh, Bobby Robideu and "Hobo" Dougherty. The last named was one time one of the present champion's henchmen. The men met in midring and shook hands in a perfunctory manner, and exchanged banter, while the crowd roared its approval.

At the top of the going Mandot walked out and promptly slammed a left to the face that made the Cadillac man hold on and clinch until parted by the referee. Wolgast met Mandot's next advance with a solid left to the body, and sunk a right to the same place after the break. The boys met in mid-ring in wild rally and the crowd howled like mad. Honors were about even.

Wolgast came by the cudsels in the third round in no uncertain manner. Mandot flinched him around the ring, and, picking off his heavy swings, stabbed a snappy left home to the head. Mandot covered well and had a clear lead at the end of the round.

The fourth round was even, Wolgast's lightning attack offsetting the clear advantage of his opponent, and in the fifth Ad flashed in the lead. He landed hard and

USED CARS

A DIRECTORY OF RELIABLE OFFERS
BY AUTOMOBILE
DEALERS & USERS

REBUILT CARS

True Values—Low Prices
You don't need to pay fancy prices for used cars if you buy here. Every car that comes out of our shops is a real bargain. If you are looking for a good, serviceable car, it will pay you to visit our showroom. Every car is fully equipped and guaranteed exactly as represented.

GLIDDEN

Motor & Supply Co.
Authorized Exchange Agents for Buick Cars.
239 West 58th St.
One door east of Broadway.

CHALMERS 5-PASSENGER 1911;
PULLMAN 5-PASSENGER 1911.

Both cars just overhauled from stem to stern; the equipment on cars is like new; tires of extra tank, clock, speedometer, windshield, top, side curtains and robes. All equipments on both cars. The Pullman car has four new shoes on it now. The paint on both cars cannot be told from new. Will stand any inspection and demonstration you can put them through. Both cars can be bought cheap. Inquire Mr. MacNally at Uptown Garage, 124th St. and 11th Ave., two blocks from Subway.

New Landaulette Bodies $900 to $1200

PACKARD, PLEASANT and Other Styles.
30 TAXI BODIES, $750 TO $1000.
NEW INSIDE Drive Bodies, $300.
These are SWELL FOUR PASSENGER, 200 Touring Bodies, $250 (some worth $300).

Jandori Automobile Co.,

BODY DEPARTMENT.
Displayed in the great "ARENA" at,
126 to 130 W. 56th St., Bet. 6th and 7th Aves.

Automobile Work of Every Description.

Painting, Trimming, Tops, Slip Covers, Repairs, etc. Wind Shields, Bumpers, Woodwork, Metal and Blacksmith Work. STERLING TOP AND EQUIPMENT CO., 314-322 West 57th Street, New York.

STODDARD DAYTON

Now is the time to purchase a car. We are selling them at practically your own figure—lowest prices. Come in and make us a bid. They are rebuilt and fully guaranteed. Used Car Dept., 4 West 62nd St.

PICKER-ARROW, 1909, seven-passenger touring, 6-60 percent, $1,900. Mrs. C. KLEMAN, 50 Siney st., east of Merrick Road, four blocks south of Fulton st., Jamaica.